FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials from the Department of Public Safety - Liquor Control assume this proposal would not have a fiscal impact.

Officials from the City of Kansas City (CKC) state that no additional licensing fees are due Kansas City as a consequence of this bill. Therefore, there will be no fiscal impact in that regard. However, the potential positive impact of additional revenues due to extended hours is indeterminable at this time.

Officials from Jackson County did not respond to our request for fiscal impact.

FISCAL IMPACT - Small Business

No direct fiscal impact to small businesses would be expected as a result of this proposal.

DESCRIPTION

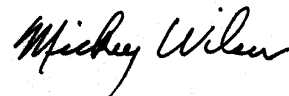

This proposal removes all of SB 421 original language and modifies Section 311.097, RSMo, by changing the time on Sundays in which intoxicating liquor by the drink may begin being sold from 11:00 a.m. to that of 8:00 a.m. on property in Jackson County that is primarily used for professional sporting events.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
